

Spread the ownership rather than consolidating it. Give the public the chance to hear more than one view of the news as opposed to embedded news sources and the likes of Murdock, General Electric, Disney and the Republican party. Think people not corporations!